Nevermind A Twin Novel

Directions: Answer each question using complete sentences. To receive full credit, use text evidence and details in your responses.

1.	What point of view is the story told from? What advantage does this give the reader? Explain why you know and support your answer with evidence.
2.	Describe Edward and Meg. Use evidence to support your description of each character.
3.	Although Edward and Meg are completely different, they also reveal that they have some similarities. Describe two of these similarities (not physical characteristics)
4.	What is the main problem in the rising action?
5.	How would you describe Meg's emotions on pages 82-87? What is going through her mind? Support your thinking with text evidence.