

Nevermind Assignment 2

Directions: Answer each question in complete sentences. Support your answers with details and text evidence.

1. What is Kimberly Wu Woodson and Annabelle Jones' definition of "popular"? Why do you think some kids (like Meg) value popularity so much? If it were up to you, how would you want to define "popular"?

2. How has the relationship between Edward and Meg changed over the novel? How has it stayed the same? Give examples to support your thinking.

3. How would the story be different if it was told from just Meg's point of view? Give examples in your explanation.

4. Choose 3-4 characters from your story. Are they static characters or dynamic characters? If they were dynamic, explain how they changed. (You need at least 1 dynamic character)

5. What is the theme of the story? (Remember the theme is a complete sentence) Support your answers with details from the text.
